

1/6

5. THERE AND BACK AGAIN

Even before she'd grown a foot or two, Julia Torres dreamed of serving a mission, and she's hoping to get her call today. That's why she's checking her email during her missionary prep class. You won't be ready to teach and preach and work as missionaries do if you can't focus, Julia!

2/6

FIND JULIA IN THE JOSEPH SMITH BUILDING

There it is: the call, gleaming in her inbox, unopened. But she knows a marshmallow test when she sees one—thanks, Elder Uchtdorf! It's hard to wait, but she's promised her family and friends that she will not open it until she can share it with them.

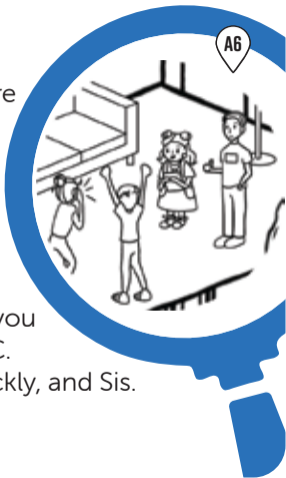

3/6

WHERE DOES JULIA OPEN HER LETTER?

After class, Julia runs to her dorm in Heritage Halls where she's arranged to meet friends and call her family. She can't believe she'll be serving in [REDACTED]!

The rest of the semester passes in a blur and before you know it, she's off to the MTC. Eighteen months go by quickly, and Sis. Torres returns to BYU.

FIND THE RECENTLY RETURNED
SISTER TORRES LEAVING THE WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL IN THE MARRIOTT CENTER

You can take Sister Torres out of the mission, but you can't take the mission out of her! Follow her to find three clues about her mission and discover where she served.

WHERE DID SISTER TORRES SERVE?

Julia served in the Canada Montreal Mission. That's why she was taking a French class, watching hockey in the Clark building, and now has a serious maple syrup problem. Welcome home, Sister Torres!

6/6

BYU OFFERS COURSES IN HOW MANY LANGUAGES?

- A 38
- B 61
- C 84
- D 1875

In addition to the programs run by the language departments, BYU's Center for Language Studies offers courses in 62 less-commonly taught languages.

BYU offers upper-division classes in more languages than any university in the United States.

